BENEFIT PERFORMANCE IN MEMORY OF MIKE LEVINE ON AUGUST 16, 2009

The nationally acclaimed Broadway hit comedy/musical, Jake Ehrenreich's "A Jew Grows In Brooklyn" comes to Orange County on August 16th for two special Benefit Performances. The long running New York production and hugely successful National Tour sets down for a 2PM and 7PM performance at the Chester Academy Theater in Chester, NY to honor Mike Levine, former Editor-In-Chief of the Middletown Times Herald Record.

On hand to film the event for an upcoming PBS documentary will be award-winning film maker, Jon Huberth, and television anchorwoman, Rachel Leigh, of FOX TV.

All proceeds from the performance of A Jew Grows in Brooklyn will go toward building "Mike's House," a Habitat for Humanity home in Newburgh, NY, in memory of Mike Levine. Mike, a perennial fighter for the underdog, and father of two, died prematurely on January 14, 2007 at the age of 54. "Mike's House" will be a fitting and lasting tribute.

A Jew Grows in Brooklyn broke box office records at the historic Lambs Theater in the heart of Broadway and ran for one and a half years. While on national tour, the show was picked as FOX TV's "Hot Ticket" along with Brittany Spears' National Circus Tour. The New York Times raved... "funny, touching, beautiful...you don't have to be Jewish or Brooklynish, Ehrenreich's dazzling showmanship is entirely non-sectarian!" Visit [www.
